Last Monday 5th September 2022 Ian Thompson was our first speaker of the new season with a talk on how creative photographers can be, with images as far back as the 1850's. A picture can be manipulated to change the viewer's perception and hence his very apt title (shown below). The second half Ian showed his own photos and how he achieved the final result, which was well appreciated by the members. Many ThanksGraham , the editor. Click Here

Message from club photographer

Mary thinks she has cracked her new job as treasurer and promises to know everyone's name by next week.

When I am taking photos can members refrain from sudden movements. Margaret's right hand is in ninja mode and is just a blur.

Chairperson Carole Perry and Competition's Secretary David Perry

In Rugeley Library, Carole and David set up our small exhibition for a four week period. Images will be changed on a regular basis, so if you're passing, just pop in.

They were also asked to judge the photographic competition at the Longdon Village Show. Our member Stephen Frost won quite a few categories and donated his winning vouchers to the club raffle. Thanks Stephen. Well worth having an extra raffle ticket next week!

From: Lee Chapman <chappersphotography@yahoo.com>

I am doing a portrait photography day next sunday and have a few spaces left, I wondered if you would mind sharing this with the other club members?

It will take place next Sunday (25th September) in Church House, High Street Abbots Bromley between 11am and 3pm, we have two excellent models who will change into 4 different historical costumes throughout the day. We also have full studio lighting to play with and the external buildings around Abbots Bromley as excellent backdrops too! Tickets are £60 and can be booked directly on the website below - If anyone from the club drops me an email (chappersphotography@yahoo.com), then I can offer £10 off for Rugeley Camera club discount if paying directly via paypal.

Message from your editor. Hopefully members will have noticed I am trying to update the newsletter, so any feedback will be appreciated. It has been brought to my attention that the flip newsletter the link opens on, is more difficult to read on a mobile. If you download the pdf file you can read it like the old format newsletter. Also I may be telling members how to suck eggs, but if you turn your phone sideways your viewing area is equivalent to a small tablet device. (I write the newsletter on a laptop so did not foresee any of these problems).

It may sound as if I know what I am talking about, but I have no guilt in playing the "Senior Citizen Card" when someone is trying to explain computer gobbledeygook. On that note I would like to thank Steve Moore and David Hanmer on their knowledgeable help in getting the newsletter to all members and hope you receive this issue as I am attempting to put it on the website!!!!!!
