Last Monday 3rd October 2022.

Dave Perry the competitions secretary gave out certificates for the first competition. By the time I realised I should have been taking photos, I had missed the elementary and intermediate winners. Plan to do better, as my school report used to read. My apologies.

Last Monday. Talk by landscape photographer Wayne Brittle.

This is the second visit by Wayne and he didn't disappoint. Members appreciated Wayne putting his camera settings on his images and how much planning went into visiting different locations using the photographer's ephemeris. He has an extensive gallery on his website and may give members ideas of places to visit to capture your own masterpieces.

Wayne uses NiSi filters especially the soft grad type to capture the scene in camera rather than doing post production work in Photoshop.

Thanks Wayne for an excellent talk and showing us some of your fantastic images and the story behind them. CLICK HERE FOR WEB

Practical evening coming up Monday October 10th. Some photos to wet your appetite. What's planned I hear you ask? Firstly Still Life projects including. Halloween theme, Some unusual sculptures, assorted vegetables with lots of unusual gourds ( all home grown, A chance to have a go at food photography. A table of incense burners to capture smoke trails . We have Charis and her husband booked for some portrait photography . Finally if I can get it to work some Macro with water droplets.

So do not forget your cameras or even mobile phones.

A Tripod would be useful.

If you have a flash then bring that along.

Most important bring yourselves and have some fun it's a chance to try something new and a chance to share your knowledge with others that are just setting out on the journey of discovery.

Don't miss it

Tonight our Guest Speaker is Terry Livesey with his presentation titled 'Commercial Photography'

Landscape Photography

Getting up at 4am for this shot is not everyone's cup of tea. I do it so you don't have to. It's Okay, you can thank me later. I travel all over the country to capture landscapes and I've also stayed local after been commissioned by the tourist board for a local calendar and realised what beauty is on my doorstep

Bradgate Park Visit
23rdOctober

Meet on Newtown Linford Carpark at 8.30am Postcode: LE6 0HB

This is a great place for the deer rut. All images below were from a quick visit last year that was a quiet day. So all obtainable by us all. We look out for any wildlife too, so never sure what we're going to see. or who you going to meet, like the great guys seen below.

We stop at the café for drinks, snack and early lunch before returning back towards the cars. There are toilets at each end.

Also this visit is easily done should anyone wish to make way back to cars, leave at different times etc.

We hope to car share as and where we can. If you would like to come along and have a giggle and a fun day out and hopefully grab some lovely images of the deer. Please let me know and also if you are offering space to anyone else in your vehicle.

mjeaton82@gmail.com

I will be seeing about the use of mobility scooters. Please let me know if you will require one and I will see if I can secure one for the visit.

Let me know by Monday 10th October through my email or message on here.

Many thanks Mary x

Pictures above are Mary explaining the visit to Bradgate park in sign language. Below is full version so members could understand.

Dear Members,

Our club will participate in the Staffordshire Photographic Clubs Annual projected image competition to be held at Lea Hall on Wednesday 9th November 2022..We invite all members to submit 2 or 3 images for possible selection to represent our club at this event.
