RACC MIDPHOT SUCCESS

Carole was delighted to know that her Triptych had an acceptance and was still smiling when she collected Stephen Frost's Ribbon and Certificate.

Carole's entry "Peace Lily" was aptly named as it brought a certain harmonious equilibrium to the Perry household, due to Dave's "Acceptance" and Carole's non acceptance.

PEACE
LILY

What a surprise, Carole rang me this morning to inform me that my 3 Submissions into Midphot had actually been recognised. Winters day received an acceptance, Cogsoftime a highly commended and spring flowers A Ribbon. Strange I had not received an email informing me of the results. Still it made my day.

Marie Lakin

Fake News Stephen was so delighted he "teleported" himself to Smethwick. His winning image "Spring Flowers" is shown below, the other 2 are on page 2.

Winters Day

Cogs of time

Thanks to Ralph Duckett for taking the group photograph. The club certainly had a good turnout as well as having lots of prints in the exhibition. I felt I should have put a couple of panels in, so here are my two for next year. "Silence is Golden" (Statuettes should have been gold). The other panel is called "Judge's Winning Panel, Awarding Ribbon and Medal" (Wishful Thinking).

Important
Message From Carole Can anyone help my niece please? She still uses 35mm Colour Film. She can't find any in the shops and eBay prices are wild! Has anyone got a secret stash or know where she can buy some from. Thanks Carole.

FAKE NEWS

PRACTICAL EVENING

Well done to the dynamic duo.

Another great night - a big thank you to Stephen Frost for all the hard work in arranging the sets and supplying the contents of his man cave. Thanks to Les Arnott for risking frost bite outside as well.

The first seven pictures were taken by your editor. Thanks Sally Arnott for the other photographs. These can be viewed properly on the clubs Facebook site. Other members may have put more photos on by the time this newsletter goes to press. Les Arnott helped Stephen by running a table doing light trails and helping members with their camera settings. Thanks Les

Landscape Photography

Getting up at 4am for this shot is not everyone's cup of tea. I do it so you don't have to. It's Okay, you can thank me later. I travel all over the country to capture landscapes and I've also stayed local after been commissioned by the tourist board for a local calendar and realised what beauty is on my doorstep

Newsflash, Editor makes mistake with Dave Perry's Email address. John Parkes (mugshot on the left) the culprit who shopped me in to Carole for taking the p out of Dave's email address. It was a Freudian slip, I don't always take the p out of Dave. Thousands of letters that I don't leave out and I get picked up for a dropped p. Correct email dave.p46@sky.com

TIE BREAKER - What does the word 'Blandilquent' mean?

LET'S HAVE A LAUGH!

We invited our neighbours around for coffee and talked about how the heatwave had made it difficult to sleep. My wife said that she'd managed to get to sleep, but suddenly woke up with a jerk. I then realised everyone's eyes were on me!
