Last week we had a guest speaker - Colin Trow-Poole with his presentation titled "An evening with Colour". Colin started his journey in photography over 40 years ago and his images usually have a documentary or story telling element. This showed in the images that Colin displayed on the evening, photo's showed the life of people in their everyday work and life. Colin is a Permajet lecturer and when printing, his two favourite papers are the FB Distinction and Gold Silk. The quality of his printing was exceptional.
